Preface

Someone once observed that we live on one planet and on this planet we find billions of worlds

Within the present population as we know it only the rarest occasion arises when two people can agree on any one subject truthfully how has this vast population become so far apart we have but one creator or father of all of us even more seriously how can this vast population get together

First man does not know himself second he has had no way of knowing himself third no one can tell man what to expect when he has come to know himself

Libraries full of books have been written that speculate on how man can better himself thousands of organizations and hundreds of isms andologies have come into being governments and religions have held many promises when we look at history look at the present situation in the world and glance hesitatingly at the future it would not take much more to convince us that mankind is damned with problems and blinded to solutions
